Mentoring a New Generation of Choral Educators

ICDA Mentorship Initiative

Tuesday, June 24 at 10:00 a.m. in room 115.

Mentorship Goal:
10 pairs of Mentor and Mentee matches
Mentors = 10 or more years of choral teaching
Mentees = 5 or less years of choral teaching

Register now to become a mentor or mentee for 2025-2026 School Year !

We need additional mentors and want to help those who are new to our profession. If you are an early choral educator or in a new position, consider signing up to be a mentee.

Go to ICDA website under mentorship initiative to sign up. Deadlines are fast approaching.

Introduction to Mentorship

Team Presentation

Ruth Dwyer, mentor
Music Consultant and Composer

Alden Hageman, mentee - Choral Director at Lincoln Middle School in Pike

Mentor Perspective
Andrew Nemeth-Choral Director at Penn High School

Mentee Perspective

Teresa Shunk -Music Director at Sullivan High School

Success Stories from Teams

Mark Yount, mentor - Choral Consultant and Clinician

Ellie Kopp, mentee - Choral Director at Columbus North High School

Drew Childs, mentor- Choral Director at Tri-West High School

Kendra Kirby, mentee - Choral Director at Heritage Christian School

Please sign up today and help us spread the word about our ICDA mentee and mentorship initiative

For Questions:

Contact, Joyce Click, jclick8@gmail.com

Or any member of the mentorship committee :

Matthias Murphy, McKenzie Martin, Isaac Denniston, Christina Huff, Kathryn Lee, Andrea Drury, Melissa Walsh, and Dan Andersen