

Pr. Senn and Pr. Hoffman being installed to their offices
by Retreat Chaplain Richard Johnson, STS

The Rev. Dr. Frank C. Senn, STS, was elected Senior of the Society of the Holy Trinity (STS) during the Society's General Retreat held September 26-28, 2006, in Mundelein, Illinois. Pastor at Immanuel Lutheran Church, Evanston, Illinois, and a noted liturgical scholar and author, Senn was elected to a second 3-year term by a pure ecclesiastical ballot, which requires a unanimous vote of the Society according to its Rule. He was instrumental in founding the STS and in drafting its Rule, to which he is one of the 27 original subscribers. Pastor Senn served as the Society's first Vicar from 1997 until his election as the second STS Senior in 2003.

The Rev. Mark A. Hoffman, STS, was elected to a fourth 3-year term as Bursar of the Society at the same retreat. Pastor at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, San Antonio, Texas, Hoffman is also of the founding pastors of the STS and has served as its Bursar since its beginning.

Pastors Senn and Hoffman were installed to their offices by the Rev. Dr. Richard O. Johnson, STS, Chaplain for this General Retreat, during its celebration of the Eucharist. Pastor Johnson serves at Peace Lutheran Church, Grass Valley, California, and is Dean of the Society's California Chapter.
